

NV-ASA Minutes

March 27, 2022

President Barb Kirkwood began the meeting at 2 pm. and welcomed all the members attending either in-person or on zoom. The Chapter provided the refreshments during the meeting.

Barbara invited everyone to the formal dedication of the Holly Springs Legacy Garden at Jenkins Arboretum in Devon, PA on May 15 at 10 am. Please let Carolyn Beck know by April 14 if you are planning to attend.

Patsy Meadows is still asking for someone to take over the hospitality/refreshment duties. A coordinator is also needed to arrange help regarding the several upcoming plant sales. This job can be done remotely. Contact Carolyn for details.

Members are invited to open their gardens for visits by chapter members. Contact Barry Sperling if you would be willing to host your yard to visitors.

The Chapter will be having two upcoming plant sales---April 30 and May 1 at Meadowlark Garden and May 7 at Ayr Hill. Volunteers are needed for both sales.

March's speaker was Jake Summers who spoke on his project to create a Holly Springs Legacy Garden at Jenkins Arboretum. Rick Bauer gave a slide show and reported on the recently held annual convention in LA which he attended. The slide show included a "trailer" highlighting the 2023 ASA convention in Atlanta. Mike Mitchell, society member and member of the Northern Virginia Bonsai Society gave a presentation about azalea bonsai and brought in samples of some of his prized bonsai.

Meeting was adjourned at 3:20 pm. Plant exchange followed.
